

ART INSPIRES – Edward Patrick Grigg BIO

"The arts have a pivotal role in putting us in touch with visual communication today"

Raised in Brooklyn NYC with pencils in hand as early as anyone can remember, Edward has always been an artist at heart. After being mentored by his art teachers in elementary school and middle school, he was accepted and attended The High School of Art & Design, a NYC Public school in Manhattan in the late 80's. After graduating from S.U.N.Y New Paltz with the prestigious BFA Degree in Graphic Design, 1994 he spent 13 years offering his unique Graphic Design creativity in advertising Agency's in NYC. Working with major companies such as Colgate, Welches, Advil and many other consumer package good companies creating dazzling Multimedia, website and logo designs. Some of his Visual Design work is still on branding of big company's products today!

Edward now lives in the Catskills with his beautiful wife and two handsome boys. He has a private art studio in a barn overlooking the mountains. You can find him happily working in his naturehood!
